

Professional Licensing Boards Division

Position Statement Concerning
Scope of Practice & Procedure Codes
Georgia Board of Chiropractic Examiners

At the May 20, 2010 meeting of the Georgia Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the Board voted that the following Procedure Codes are within the scope of practice and are appropriate for chiropractic services performed by a duly licensed doctor of chiropractic.

Procedure Code 97535
Procedure Code 99070
Procedure Code 72120
Procedure Code E0720
Procedure Code 97112
Procedure Code E0190
Procedure Code L3020
Procedure Code 72020

At the February 15, 2007 meeting of the Georgia Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the Board voted:

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 43-9-12.1 and Board Rule 100-10-.01, duly licensed chiropractors are allowed to refer to licensed Healthcare Providers. Therefore, referrals for physical therapy services falls within the scope of practice.

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 43-9-12.1, duly licensed chiropractors are allowed to utilize or prescribe TENS units; this practice falls within the scope of practice.

At the November 10, 2005 meeting of the Georgia Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the Board voted that the following Procedure Codes are within the scope of practice and are appropriate for chiropractic services performed by a duly licensed doctor of chiropractic.

Procedure Code 97110
Procedure Code 97112
Procedure Code 97530

The Board also encourages all licensed chiropractors in Georgia to be familiar with Georgia law, O.C.G.A. § 43-9-1(2) which defines the scope of practice in Georgia.

The laws and rules governing the practice of Chiropractic can be found on the board's web-site at www.sos.state.ga.us.

Insurance company reimbursement issues should be brought to the attention of:

The Georgia Insurance Commissioner's Office

7th Floor, West Tower

2 Martin Luther King, Jr., Dr.

Atlanta, GA 30334

(404) 656-2056

<http://www.inscomm.state.ga.us>